

STARS FOR BOUNCER

THE SUPER SEVEN

Bouncer was a little thing, with some very big dreams. He loved to jump.

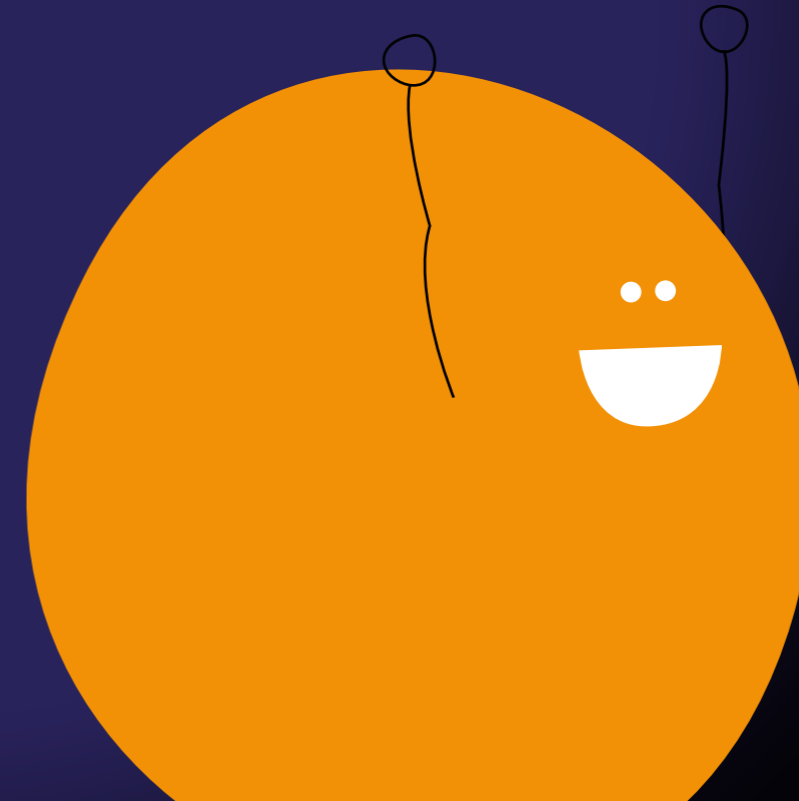

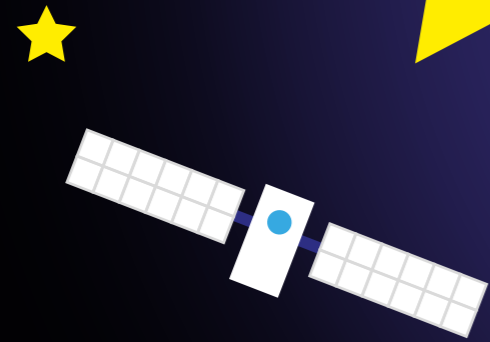

Higher, further and faster than anyone else in the whole wide world.

He even dreamed of jumping into space
and beyond to reach the stars.

But he knew it would take a lot of practise.

So all day he would bounce more and more,
higher and higher.

NEARLY THERE

He would say to all of his friends
“one day I’ll reach the stars.”

“YOU’LL NEVER REACH
THE STARS!”

They laughed.

They’re far too far away.

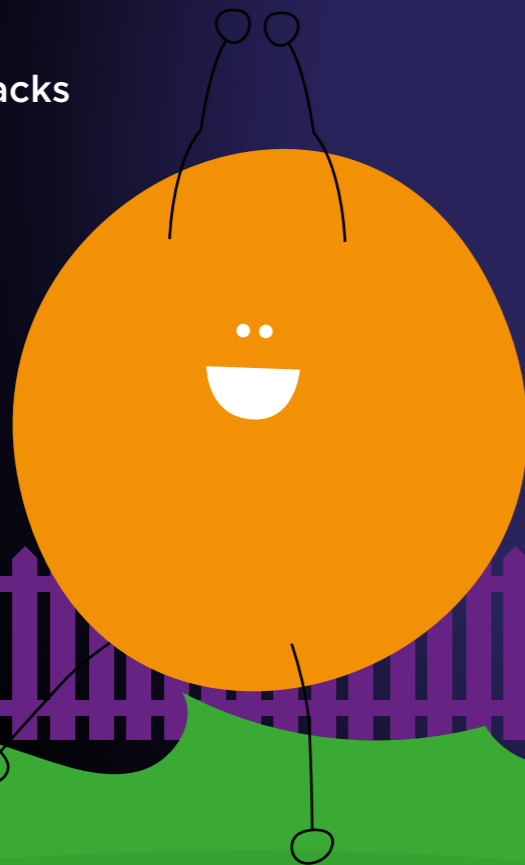

But Bouncer believed that the impossible was possible.

He just needed to practise, follow his dreams and find a way. So, he set about a plan.

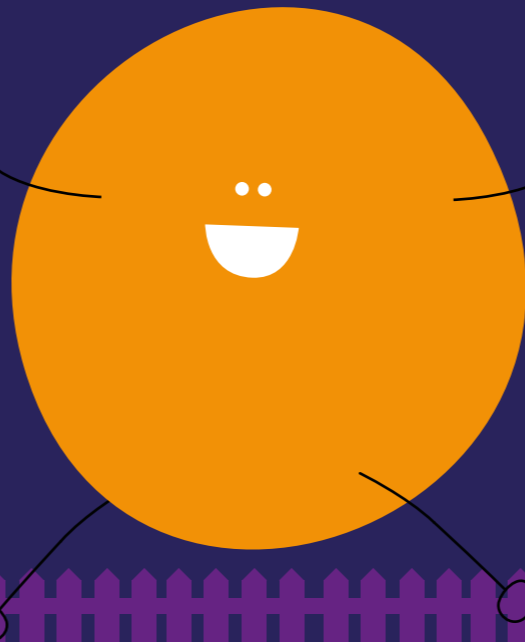

He did
3 sets of 10 jumping jacks

HIGH

3 sets of 10 star jumps

HIGHER

3 sets of 10
bended knee
jumps

HIGHEST

HIGH

Then he tried a trampoline

pogo stick

HIGHEST

Even
super-springy shoes

I'M EXHAUSTED!

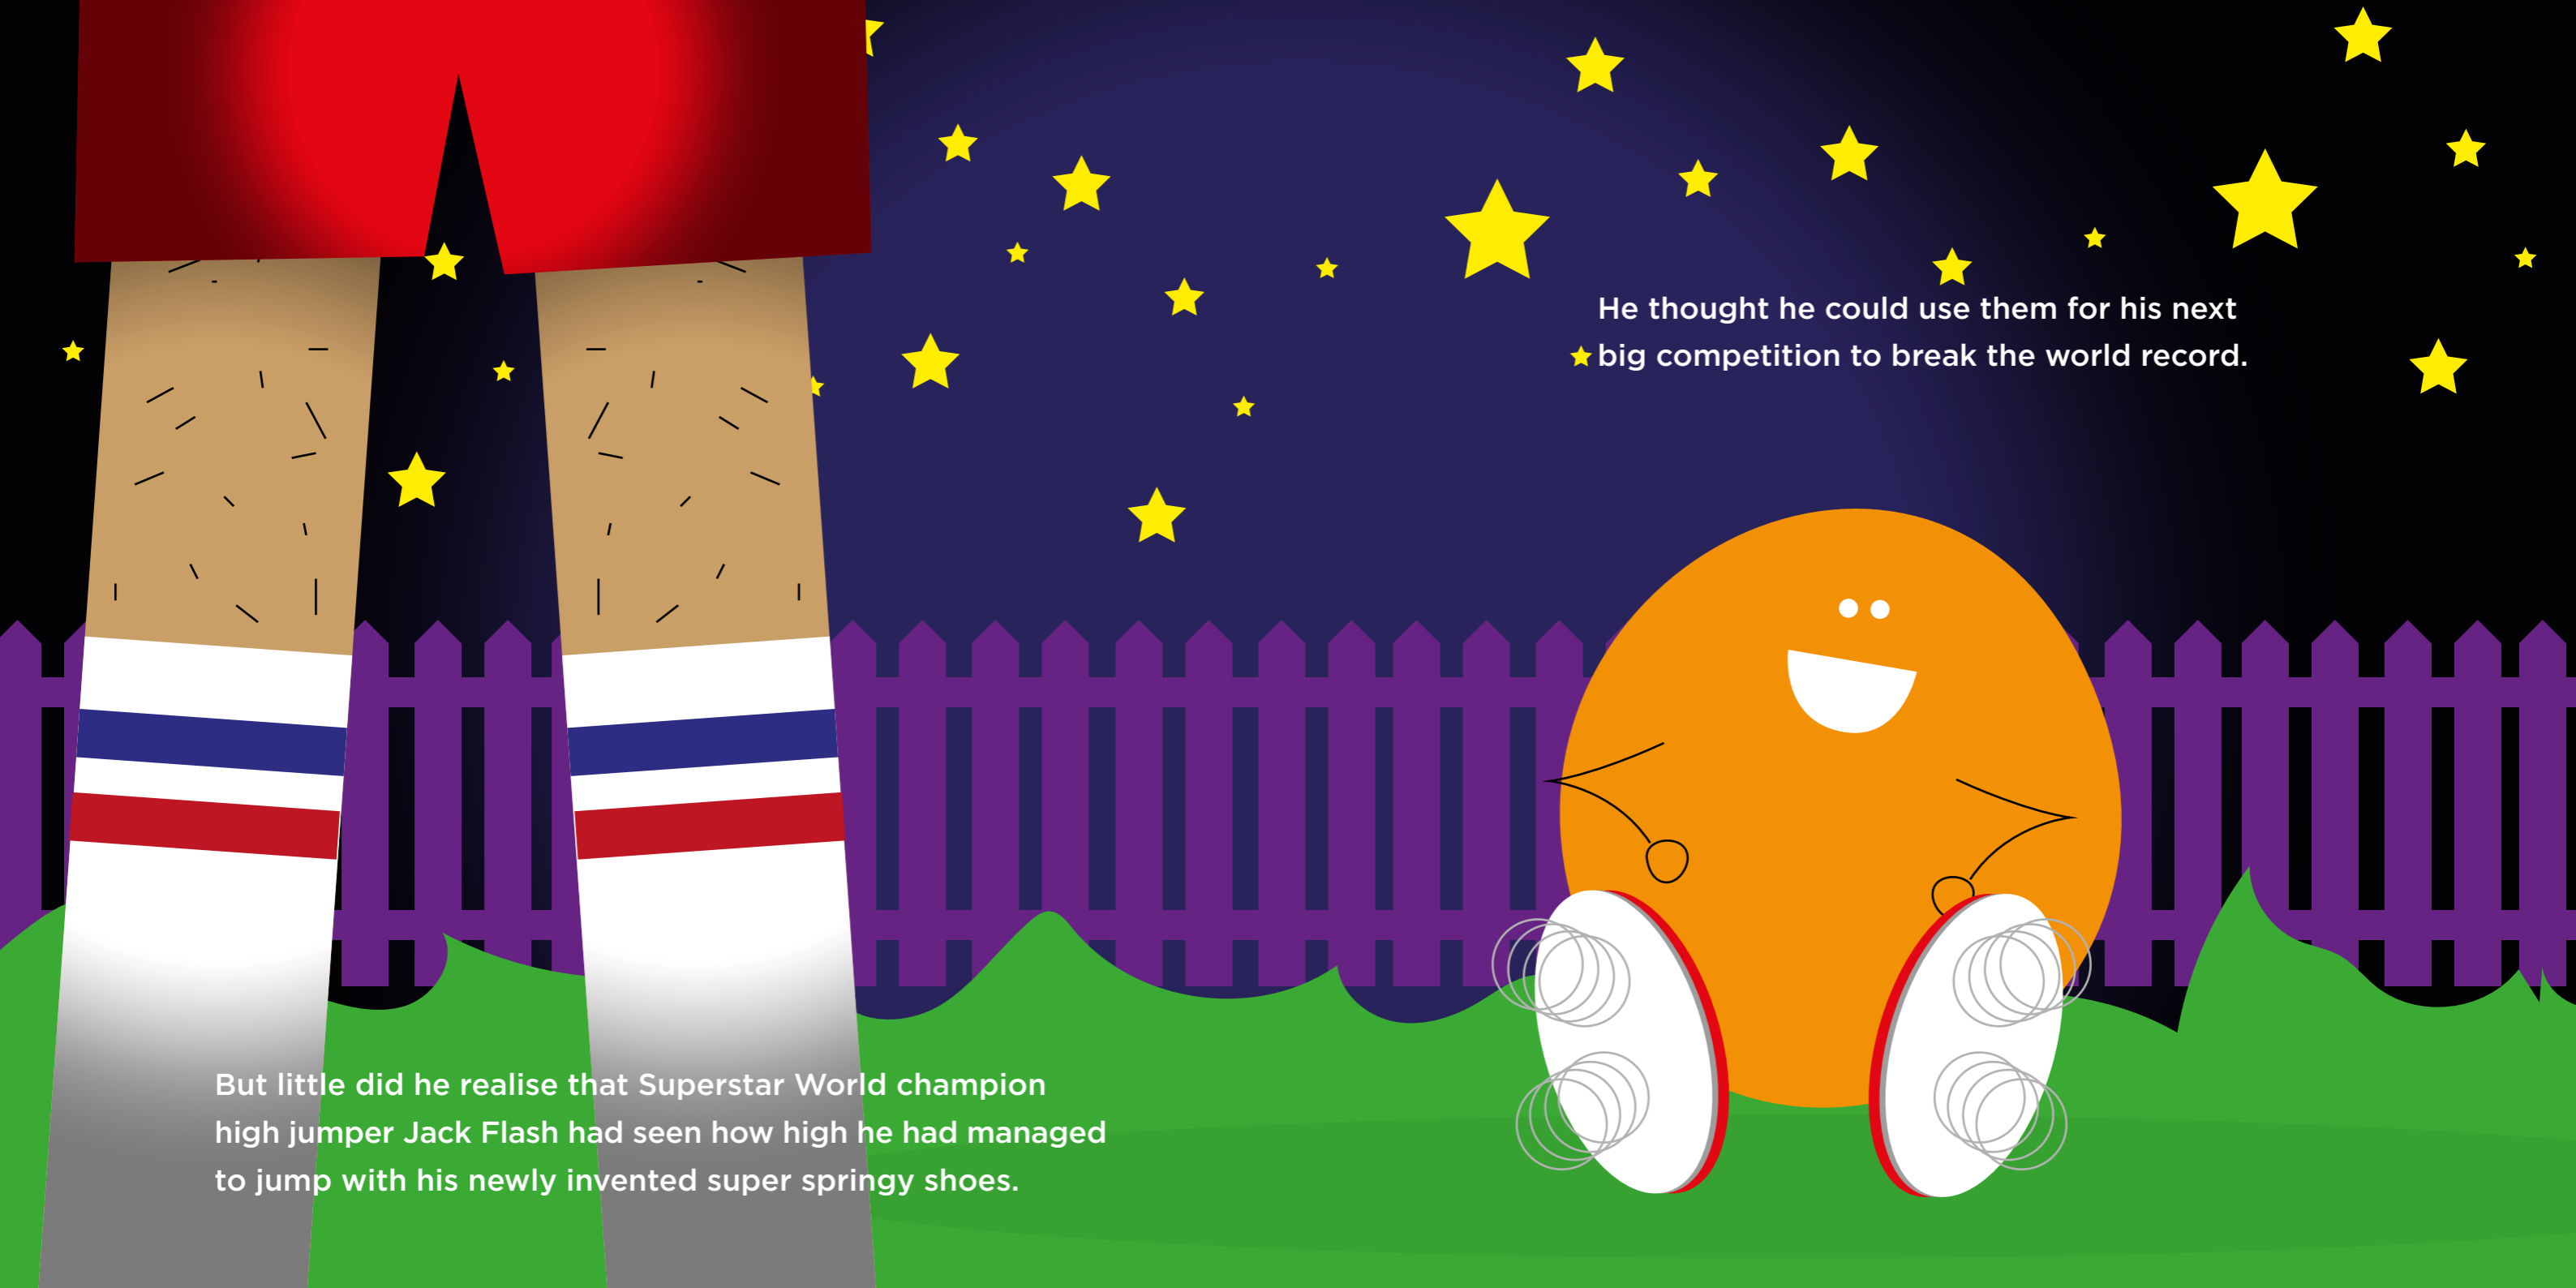

But none of his plans worked.

The stars seemed further away than ever.

No matter how high or far he jumped he felt he was never going to make it.

Bouncer was really close to giving up.

He thought he could use them for his next ★ big competition to break the world record.

But little did he realise that Superstar World champion high jumper Jack Flash had seen how high he had managed to jump with his newly invented super springy shoes.
